

ASSIGNMENT SET-30

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya

Department of Nutrition

B.Sc.Hon(CBCS)

Semester-V

Paper Code:-DSE-1T

1. What is the health risks associated with rodent infestations in food establishments?
2. Describe the signs that indicate a rodent infestation in a food facility.
3. Explain the potential pathways through which rodents can contaminate food.
4. What preventive measures can be taken to discourage rodent entry into food storage areas?
5. Discuss the various methods for trapping and removing rodents from food establishments.
6. Explain the importance of maintaining cleanliness to deter rodent infestations.
7. Describe the risks associated with rodenticides and their safe application in food establishments.
8. How can health personnel identify and seal potential entry points for rodents in a food facility?
9. Discuss the legal regulations and guidelines regarding rodent control in food establishments.
10. What steps should be taken to safely dispose of rodents caught in traps or through other means?
11. Explain the role of pesticides in controlling vectors in food establishments.
12. Discuss the different types of pesticides commonly used for vector control.
13. What safety measures should health personnel take when applying pesticides in food areas?
14. Describe the potential health risks associated with the improper use of pesticides.
15. How can health personnel ensure the proper storage and handling of pesticides?
16. Discuss the environmental impact of pesticide use in vector control and measures to mitigate it.