Organized by the Department of Commerce

The Department of Commerce on 24th January, 2024 organized an outreach program for the people residing near Bhupatinagar Kanya Vidyalaya, Bhupatinagar - 721425. The objective of this program was to spread awareness on financial literacy, the recent advancements of payment systems (e.g. the UPI, AePS, NEFT etc.) and the mechanism to transact money safely. This program was also intended to make people understand the mechanism on which the formal financial system operates and how these operations leads to the development of the rural economy with special reference to financial empowerment of women through Self-Help Groups. Different investment avenues apart from the banking services were briefly elaborated and certain non-banking investment avenues were also discussed (e.g. investment in mutual funds, gold bonds etc.). Prof. Abani Kumar Tripathy, Head of the department discussed the intricacies involved with informal financial arrangements, highlighting some cases on banking frauds and the recent AePS scam that helped users or sometimes potential users understand a holistic view of the phenomena. The students also interacted with the people while making them understand certain elementary aspects e.g. checking their bank balances through mobile based applications, elaborating the need of KYC's in the banks and discussing the latest trends based on which phishing can be avoided. Finally, a formal vote of thanks on behalf of the department was offered by Prof. Shantanu Ghosh to the audience for their patience hearing and active participation<sup>1</sup>.
