24 Flood relief program by NSS Volunteers of the college on 02.10.21, 08.10.21 and 09.10.21 to the local villages

During the dread flood in the month of October, 2021, the vast areas of Bhagwanpur II Block were under flooded water for about two months. In this period, the NSS student volunteers about 20 on an average and students of UnnatabharatAvijan (about 10) along with Principal Sir and other faculty members rendered their volunteer services to the people by supplying dry foods, drinking water, medicines and also by providing cooking foods to the people who were in the shelter of college premises. By rendering these services they are sensitized about these disaster management issues of the society.
