The institution's commitment to inclusivity is exemplified by its Students Support Cell, which ensures equitable opportunities for all students, irrespective of caste, language, religion, or cultural background. This includes assistance with tuition fee concessions, private scholarships, and government funding schemes. Additionally, the college's OBC, SC/ST, and Minority Cell organizes inclusive events that celebrate various cultural and religious festivals, fostering unity and mutual understanding among students.

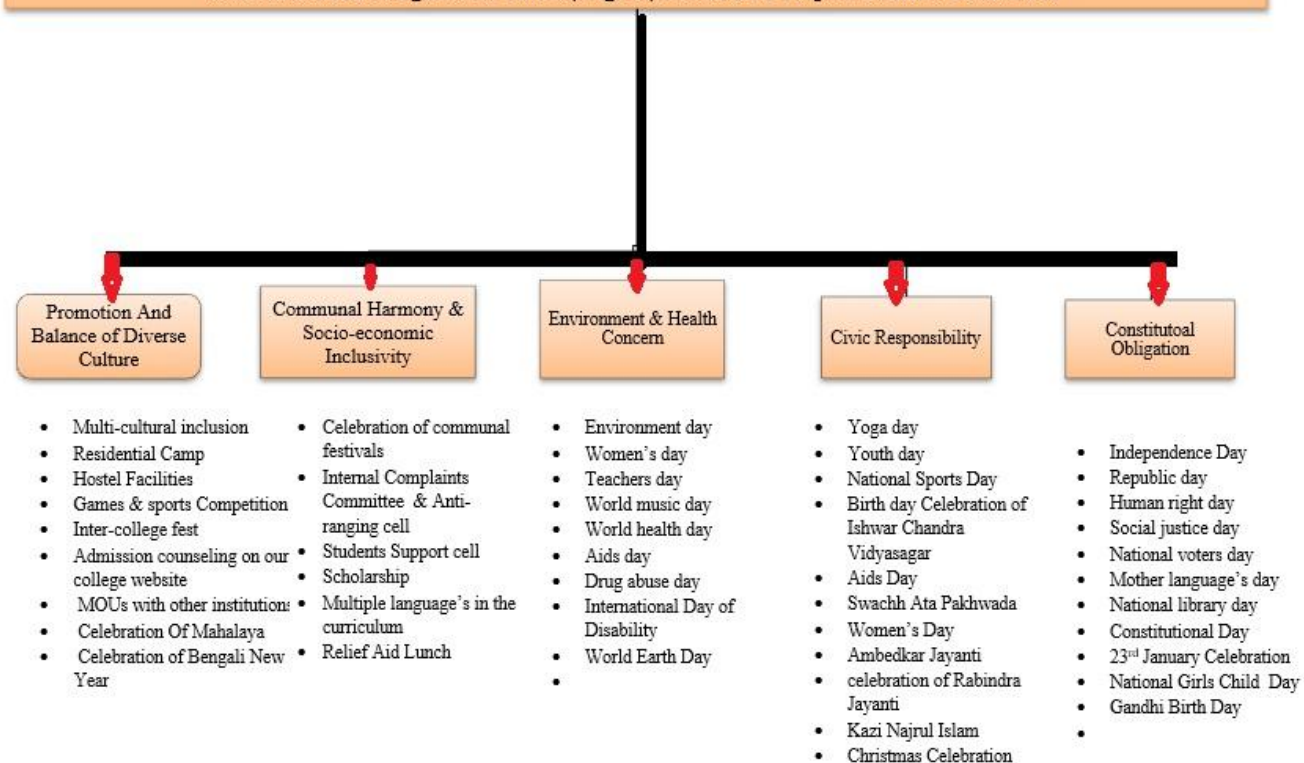

Furthermore, the National Service Scheme (NSS) and National Cadet Corps (NCC) organize events and camps that promote camaraderie and unity among students while also serving the less fortunate sections of society. The college's political science department conducts voter awareness programs, emphasizing the importance of civic engagement and participation. To ensure a safe and inclusive campus environment, the college has established internal complaints and Anti-Ragging Cells, which uphold equal treatment for all students and promote tolerance and unity. The admission policy prioritizes diversity by providing online counseling and financial aid to students from diverse backgrounds. Language diversity is celebrated through the inclusion of Bengali, English, Hindi, and Sanskrit in the curriculum, reflecting the college's commitment to accommodating linguistic diversity.

In addition to these efforts, the college hosts various events and activities throughout the year, such as blood donation camps, International Mother Language Day observances, International Yoga Day celebrations, and cultural competitions. Special occasions like Independence Day, Republic Day, Social Justice Day, Constitutional Day and Human Rights Day are also commemorated, fostering a sense of national pride and social responsibility among students.
