Constitutional Obligation

Session- 2020-2021

Activities undertaken to foster constitutional obligations:

The college takes up initiative under Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and cleans the campus and the community on regular basis by the NSS team.

As a part of community service that instill ethical values among students, the college took up a program of distributing mobile phones to the poor students who had difficulties in taking online lessons due to lack of smart phone. The initiative was taken on 31.01.2021.

The NSS and NCC team of the college had taken up programs of maintaining not only a green campus, but also a green community thereby planting saplings to the village areas on 06.08.2020.

Observation of Constitution Day (26.11.2020)

The Constitution day was celebrated virtually to commemorate the day on which our constitution was adopted. The Constitution of our country was adopted by the constituent assembly on 26th November, 1949 and it was came into effect on 26th January 1950. An online programme was organized by the NSS units of our college. Principal Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra and Mrs Taniya Neogi, NSS programme officer lucidly described the importance of the day. Students also actively participated in the programme by reading the Preamble.
