Research and Development Policy

Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya is committed to the promotion of research and the generation of knowledge for the benefit of the students, faculty and society at large. The college promotes research as an important and essential part of its academic activity. Keeping this in mind, Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya facilitated the research culture in the following aspects.

- Workshops, conferences, and seminars are to be arranged in order to provide a conducive climate for research and development.
- Provide information and flyers on research projects and Research funding, seminars, conferences, webinars of national and international agencies by the IQAC and by the Research Cell through notice on WhatsApp group as well as in the staff room.
- Sensitize departments and faculty on potential research and development areas.
- Provide exposures to faculties for ideas on research proposal.
- To encourage our faculty, the Research Club of the college will be conducting a faculty seminar in order to provide space to present research papers.
- Felicitations on successful completion of Ph. D by the faculty.
- Encourage publication of books, monographs, research papers etc. by providing financial assistance and infrastructure research ambience.
- Motivate faculty and students to publish and to present research papers articles at various National and international conferences and seminars.
- Motivate the faculty to enroll for a professional membership for more exposure to research.

- To provide ample scope to do collaborative research work with other renowned institutes or organizations.
- To encourage research activity, the college has initiated MOUs with other colleges/Universities and other institutes.
- To encourage our faculties to go abroad to present research papers, the college has maintained a friendly gesture in such cases. However, it requires GB approval and the NOC from Higher Education Department.
