Significance of the seminar

In this year, 15th August is regarded as an important day of celebration. India has organized many national programs and activities to celebrate 150th birth anniversary of the great national personality Sri Aurobindo. It is very important to note that 15th August is also celebrated as the independent day of India. Sri Aurobindo ( 15th Aug. 1872 – 5th Dec. 1950) is not only a revolutionary freedom fighter, but also an evolutionary philosopher, a spiritual leader, a poet and a visionary sage. As he is popular, he is known as a national freedom fighter, a journalist, an editor and a great Indian nationalist, though he accepts internationalism and spiritualism in the long journey of his struggle. He was edited the newspaper “Bandemataram” and joined the Indian freedom movement for independence, and then regarded as an influential leader. After a long struggle for the freedom of India from the British colonial rule, he became a spiritual leader as well as reformer by introducing his vision and mission through the spiritual evolution and human progress. For his valuable contribution to the field of Indian Philosophy, he is also regarded as one of the famous Indian contemporary philosopher. His works are The Devine Life, Essays on the Gita, Collected Poems and Plays, The Synthesis of Yoga, The Human Cycle, The Ideal of Human Unity, Savitri: A legend and a Symbol, and On the Veda. For these contributions, he was nominated two times for the Nobel Prize without it being awarded, in 1943 for the Nobel award in Literature and in 1950 for the Nobel award in Peace.

His struggle for freedom, works on literature and philosophy and his contributions to the Indian yoga system and spiritualism always motivate us towards the change of life such as from gross life to divine life or from man to superman. In order to celebrate the 150th birth anniversary of Sri Aurobindo, the Department of Philosophy of this college has organised one day seminar on “Our Tribute to Sri Aurobindo: Revolutionary freedom fighter, evolutionary philosopher, poet and visionary sage” held on 31st August, 2022.
