The Department of Geography had the pleasure to arrange for a program on the Teachers Day, i.e., 05.09.2022 in the Erastosthenes Hall (Room No. 216) of the Department. Semester VI of the department arranged the program. The occasion had been glorified further by the presence of the Principal Dr. Swapan Kumar Mishra and the faculties of the Department. The program was initiated by watering the plant and paying respect to the photo of Dr. Sarvapally Radhakrishnan, the eminent scholar whose birthday is celebrated as Teachers Day in India. The program was made memorable by the in augural song (Rabindrasangeet), sung by Debangshi Bera of Semester V. 25 students participated in the program, among which 16 are male and 12 female.

The program was presided by Principal Dr. Swapan Kumar Mishra who delivered a lecture about the importance of education in the society. He also focussed on the authenticity of the student- teacher relationship. Prof. Irani Banerji Chatterjee, the HOD of the Department also delivered a lecture stating the importance of values in a teacher’s life and inspiration in a student’s path to knowledge. Students from 5th semester arranged a small cultural program for the teachers that included speeches on the department, recitation of poem by Rabindranath Tagore and songs. The students also performed song dances to make the occasion memorable. The program ended successfully with a promise to upheld the level of relationship of the teachers and the students in future.
