SHORT REPORT ON MAHISHASURAMORDINI

Mahishasuramarddini is widely popular early Bengali special dawn radio programme that has been broadcasting since 1931 on All India Radio (AIR) in Indian state West Bengal. It is a one-and-a-half-hour audio montage of Chaṇḍipāṭh (chanting from Chaṇḍi) recitation from the scriptural verses of ŚrīŚrīChaṇḍi or DurgaSaptashati, Bengali devotional songs, classical music and a dash of acoustic melodrama. The program has been translated into Hindi set to similar orchestration and is broadcast at the same time for a pan-Indian audience. This programme is aired every year at day-break on Mahalaya. The programme, which was started off as a live-performance, has been broadcast in its pre-recorded format since 1966. However, its great popularity remains undiminished even today over 90 years later.

This program has become synonymous with Mahalaya which is celebrated to usher the Devipaksha lunar fortnight and the Durga Puja. On this day, most of Bengal and East Indians fond of the programme wakes up in the breezily pre dawn hours, 4 am to be precise, on the Mahalaya day to tune into the Mahishasuramarddini broadcast. Presently the recordings are available as audio cassettes and Compact Disks from HMV-RPG which has obtained the rights from All India Radio. The CD version (as of 2002) contains 19 tracks.

Since 2002 the programme has been conducted by the students of BPED in live streaming mode. During COVID condition this programme was performed by our students in online mode. The programme was performed by our students in different character such as Durga, Mahiasur, Laxmi, Swaraswati, Ganesh, Kartik, Shiv etc. The rehearsal was started near about 15 days before. The whole programme was directed by the departmental teacher.

The programme was conducted in different places of Bhupatinagar such as Madhakhali busstand, Netaji statue, Our Collegegate, Hospital more, and lastly at Bank more. All the costume related to this programme was provided by our department. The entire programme was played by a sound system and on the basis of that the student were performing their respective roles on spot.

Objectives:

1. The objective of such types of programme was to give the equal opportunities to all the student to get the platform and flourish their potential.
2. Student can learn how to act and they can learn how to represent a character in front of the people.
3. On the basis of that, a cultural exchange was takes place between the student and local people.
4. Student can learn cooperation, Competition, how to communicate with others, and can develop their social bonding with the local people.
5. On the basis of that programme a good bonding as well as relation was established between the teacher, student, and local people.

Out comes:

1. On the basis of such kinds of programme all the students can get the opputunities to particapte in a cultural programme .
2. Students can get the chance to communicate with the people through this programme and they can learn from this types of programme that how to handle crowed at the moment of the presentyation of Mahisasuramardini.

3. On the basis of that programme they can build their capability to handle public in a certain situation and it can develop the communication skill also.
4. Through the presentation of such kinds of holi programme the student can create a vision about our college .
