About the Programme

Ustad Rashid Khan was a renowned Indian classical vocalist, particularly known for his mastery in the Hindustani classical music tradition. Born on July 01, 1968, he hails from the Rampur-Sahaswan gharana. Ustad Rashid Khan was celebrated for his soulful renditions of khayal and thumri genres. His powerful yet melodious voice has earned him accolades and a prominent place in the world of Indian classical music. He achieved many prestigious award like PADMASHREE in 2006, SANGEET NATAK ACADEMY AWARD in 2006, BANGA BHUSAN in 2012, GIMA AWARD in 2010 and PADMABHUSAN in 2022. At the age of 55, Ustad Khan Died on 09.01.2024 (Tuesday) at 03:45 pm.

To pay our last respect to such a great Star of Indian Classical Music, we organized a mourning meet in the Music Department of our College to pray for his soul to rest in peace.

First, a silence was held to pray for the peace of his soul, then a wreath was placed in his portrait by the hands of our honourable Principal. After that the biography and musical carrier of Ustad Khan were presented by the honorable Principal and Professors through a speech in front of the students. The programme concluded with a ensemble music of Tagore.
