Parent-Teacher Meeting Report

Of

U.G. 1ST SEMESTER 2023-2024

Meeting Date: 11.01.2024, Thursday

Class: Semester- I

Department: Bengali (UG)

Participants: Parents/Guardians: 85

Teachers: 06

Nonteaching Staff: 01

Meeting Time: 01:30 PM

President: Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra, Principal, M.G.M.

Meeting host by: Dr. Pintu Roy Choudhury, H.o.D., Dept. of Bengali

Meeting summary: The parent-teacher meeting held on 11.01.2024, Thursday provided an invaluable opportunity for constructive dialogue and collaboration between parents and teachers. The discussions focused on academic progress, students' attendance, students' behavior, infrastructure development etc.

Academic Progress: Teachers presented a comprehensive overview of the academic performance of each student. Areas of strength and improvement were highlighted, allowing parents to gain a deeper understanding of their ward's educational journey. Strategies for enhancing academic success were discussed collaboratively.

Behavioral and Social Development: Discussions around student behavior and social interactions provided insight into the holistic development of each student's. Teachers shared observations, and parents had the opportunity to provide additional context or address concerns. Strategies for fostering positive behavior and social skills were explored.

Students' attendance: The regular presence of students in classrooms forms the backbone of a successful learning environment. Attendance is not just about physically being present; it's about engaging with the learning process, contributing to discussions, and actively participating in the educational experience. When students attend classes regularly, they not only gain knowledge but also develop important life skills such as discipline, time management, and responsibility. Parents' involvement in monitoring and encouraging their ward's attendance is invaluable. It sends a powerful message that education is a priority and that you are actively invested in their success.

Individualized Plans: Where necessary, individualized plans for academic support or behavioral improvement were devised. Teachers and parents collaborated to set realistic goals and establish a framework for ongoing communication to monitor progress.

Parental Involvement: The importance of parental involvement in a student's education was emphasized. Teachers provided information on upcoming school events, volunteering opportunities, and ways parents can actively participate in their ward's educational journey.

Next Steps: Both teachers and parents left the meeting with a clear understanding of the agreed-upon action items and areas of focus. Ongoing communication channels, such as regular progress updates and additional meetings, were established to ensure continued collaboration.

Overall, the parent-teacher meeting served as a positive platform for open communication, fostering a sense of partnership between home and school to support the holistic development of each student.
