Introduction:

The one-day seminar on "Ethics, Values, and Practices of Faith in Contemporary Youth: A Religious Perspective" organized by the Department of Political Science and Geography at Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya was held on 12th January 2024 at the S N Bose Hall. Although Principal Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra was absent, Dr. Subhas Chandra, the Head of Department of Philosophy, efficiently took charge as the Teacher-in-Charge for the event.

Inaugural Session:

Dr. Subhas Chandra inaugurated the seminar and set the tone for the day with a comprehensive speech. He delved into the commonalities and universal ethical teachings present in various religions. His speech provided a fundamental understanding of the ethical teachings prevalent across different faiths.

Keynote Speeches:

Dr. Goutam Barman delivered an enlightening speech focusing on the values of Hinduism and specifically highlighting the teachings of Sri Sri Anukul Thakur. His discourse shed light on the moral principles embedded in Hinduism and how they guide the youth in navigating contemporary challenges.

Venerable Buddharakkhita, a Buddhist monk, offered a unique perspective to the attendees. His speech emphasized universal values, contemporary issues, and elucidated the core tenets of Buddhism and its practical applications. This introduction to Buddhist philosophy provided attendees with a fresh and insightful perspective on ethical living.

Interactive Session:

Following the keynote speeches, an interactive session ensued, allowing participants to engage with the speakers. The Q&A session saw enthusiastic participation from the attendees, who posed thought-provoking questions and sought clarification on various aspects of ethics, values, and religious practices.

Conclusion and Vote of Thanks:

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Joint Coordinator Irani Chatterjee. She expressed gratitude to the speakers, organizers, and participants for their contributions to the event's success. The seminar served as a platform for insightful discussions, fostering a deeper understanding of ethics, values, and religious practices among contemporary youth.

Outcome :

The seminar on "Ethics, Values, and Practices of Faith in Contemporary Youth: A Religious Perspective" provided a conducive environment for exploring the intersection of religion, ethics, and contemporary challenges. Through the contributions of esteemed speakers and active participation from attendees, the event facilitated meaningful dialogue and reflection on the role of faith in shaping moral conduct among today's youth.
