Date: 08.08.2025

Time: 02:00 p.m.

On 8th August 2025, the Music Department of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya observed ২২শে শ্রাবণ, the death anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore, with deep respect and cultural fervour. The programme commenced at 02:00 p.m. in the D,L,Roy hall, attended by teachers, students, and staff members.

Present at the event were the college Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Subhash Chandra Sir, the Secretary of the Teachers' Council, Dr. Manoranjan Das; the Head of the Department of Chemistry, Dr. Bidhan Chandra Samanta; Dr. Gautam Barman from the Department of Bengali; and Dr. Ranjit Giri from the Department of Economics, along with other faculty members.

In the middle of the program, we organized two activities within the college campus — a tree plantation ceremony and a garlanding of the marble statues of eminent personalities.

The event began with a floral tribute to Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore, followed by an introductory speech highlighting his immense contributions to Bengali literature, music, art, and philosophy. Teachers spoke about the significance of ২২শে শ্রাবণ and its relevance in preserving the rich cultural heritage of Bengal.

Students of the department presented a vibrant cultural programme featuring Rabindra Sangeet, recitations of Tagore's poems. The soulful renditions and heartfelt performances created an atmosphere of devotion and remembrance.

The Head of the Department appreciated the enthusiastic participation of the students and emphasised the importance of understanding Tagore's ideology and creative works. The programme concluded with a chorus performance of "Amar Shonar Bangla" and a vote of thanks, marking the end of an inspiring and memorable event.
