About the programme

World Music Day 2025 Celebration and Wall Magazine ("Shruti") Publication Organized by the Department of Music, Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya.

Date: 21st June 2025

The Department of Music at Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya observed World Music Day on 21st June 2025 with enthusiasm, creativity, and academic spirit. The event was marked by the publication of the annual departmental wall magazine, "Shruti", which featured thoughtful articles, musical reflections, and creative contributions from students and faculty.

The programme was graced by several esteemed guests. The special guest, Shri Debdulal Bandyopadhyay, NSS Programme Coordinator, Vidyasagar University, delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the transformative power of music in youth development, education, and community service.

The celebration was inaugurated and guided by our respected Principal, Dr. Swapan Kumar Misra, whose encouraging words set the tone for the entire event. In his address, he emphasized the importance of integrating music into holistic education and appreciated the department's sincere efforts in nurturing creativity and cultural awareness among students.

We were also privileged to have Dr. Manaranjan Das, Teachers' Council Secretary, as a guest of honour. He commended the students for their dedication and praised the department for successfully organizing such a meaningful cultural programme.

The event witnessed participation from faculty members, students, and dignitaries across various departments. The performances by the Music Department students—covering Indian classical, folk, and world music genres—added depth and diversity to the celebration, truly reflecting the spirit of World Music Day.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks and a collective resolve to continue promoting music as a medium of education, cultural dialogue, and social harmony.
