Report on Career Counselling Program on Competitive Examinations and Entrepreneurship

The Department of Bengali of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya organized a Career Counselling Program on 24th January 2024 to guide students on career opportunities after completing their degree.

The session focused on the preparation strategies for various competitive examinations and highlighted entrepreneurship as a promising career path. Expert speakers provided insights into the skills required to excel in competitive exams and shared success stories of entrepreneurs who built successful ventures post-graduation.

Students actively participated in the session, raising queries about exam patterns, available resources, and entrepreneurial opportunities. The program was highly informative, motivating students to explore diverse career options and equipping them with practical knowledge for their future endeavors.

The Department of Bengali extends its gratitude to the speakers and participants for making the session a success.
