Report on Cultural Program Celebrating the 138th Birthday of Gurusaday Dutta

The Bratachari Group of the Physical Education Department of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya successfully organized a Cultural Program on 6th February 2024 to celebrate the 138th Birthday of Gurusaday Dutta.

The event began with a tribute to Gurusaday Dutta, highlighting his contributions as a social reformer and the founder of the Bratachari Movement, which emphasizes physical fitness, moral strength, and cultural unity.

Students performed various traditional dances, songs, and recitations inspired by the Bratachari philosophy. The performances reflected the rich cultural heritage and the importance of physical and moral education in building a harmonious society.

The program received enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members, making it a memorable event. The Physical Education Department extends its gratitude to all participants and attendees for their support in honoring the legacy of Gurusaday Dutta.
