Report on Career Counselling Session on Competitive Examinations and Entrepreneurship

The Department of Philosophy of Mugberia Gangadhar Mahavidyalaya successfully organized a Career Counselling Session on 31st January 2024 to guide students on opportunities after completing their degree.

The session focused on preparing for various competitive examinations and introduced entrepreneurship as an alternative career path. Expert speakers provided insights into the preparation strategies for government and private sector exams and shared success stories of entrepreneurs who built successful ventures after graduation.

Students actively participated in the interactive session, raising queries about exam patterns, skill development, and resources for starting their own businesses. The session proved to be highly beneficial, motivating students to explore diverse career opportunities and equipping them with practical knowledge for their future endeavors.

The Department of Philosophy extends its gratitude to all participants and speakers for making the session a success.
